SUBJECT: Proposed Visit to the [REDACTED]

1. The time seems ripe for establishing closer rapport, on an operational level, between the [REDACTED] Library and the CIA Library. Recent inquiries received from [REDACTED] make clear their interest in our Library system. We, in turn, are anxious to learn how they organize their intelligence information, what publication procurement sources they employ, and which of their official publications are available for exchange. A discussion of reference facilities and allied problems would greatly benefit both organizations.

25X1X7

2. The most effective single method of developing desirable working relationships between the libraries would be through personal contact of their key administrators. It is requested, therefore, that the CIA Librarian or his Deputy be authorized to visit [REDACTED] for one week to establish such a contact.

3. As a corollary, the CIA Librarian should be authorized to invite the [REDACTED] Librarian for a visit to Washington at his convenience.
